

Foreigners in London 1520-1677
The Artists that Changed the Course of British Art

With Leslie Primo

WEDNESDAY 3 OCTOBER 2018

Little Baddow Memorial Hall, Little Baddow, Chelmsford CM3 4TA

Cost £22 per person

Why were foreigner painters preferred by the aristocracy in London to native-born English painters, why did foreigners come in the first place, what was their motivation, and what was the impact of foreigners in London on English art and art practise? The lectures will look at the various formats and uses of art, tracing foreign artists from the Tudor period through to the Renaissance and Baroque, looking at their origins and how they came to work in England. Leslie Primo will examine the contributions of artists such as Holbein, Gerrit van Honthorst, Marcus Gheeraerts the younger, Lucas and Susanna Horenbout, Isaac Oliver, Paulus van Somer, van Dyck, Peter Lely, and Rubens, how these artists influenced the British School of painting, and assess their legacy.
